CHARGED WITH ASSAULTING A WHITE LADY

Will Ford, Colored, Alleged to Have Cut Her Clothing.

THIS OCCURRED NEAR THE CORNER OF PALAFOX AND ROMANA STREETS AND THE NEGRO WAS IMMEDIATELY ARRESTED AND LOCKED UP IN JAIL.

Will Ford, colored, charged with assaulting a well known lady with a knife near the corner of Palafox and Romana streets, about four o'clock yesterday evening, was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Smith and locked up in the county jail.

The lady was not injured, the knife failing to pass through her clothing. When Ford was brought to the jail he informed the officers that his brother-in-law, Sam Pitts, made the assault. The latter was also arrested. Both negroes are from Millview, having come here for the carnival.

Attention Sick Women

If you had positive proof that a certain remedy for female ills had made many remarkable cures, would you not feel like trying it?

If during the last thirty years we have not succeeded in convincing every fair-minded woman that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has cured thousands and thousands of women of the ills peculiar to their sex, then we long for an opportunity to do so by direct correspondence. Meanwhile read the following letters which we guarantee to be genuine and truthful.

Paterson, N. J.—"But for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I would not be alive to-day for I was a miserable sufferer for four or five years. The doctors said it was Change of Life and I suffered untold agonies."

"I had read that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was good for female troubles so started to take it. I found great relief at once, and to-day I am a well woman. I thank Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for it, and gladly recommend it to any woman suffering from Change of Life or female troubles."—Mrs. Wm. Somerville, 195 Hamburg Ave., Paterson, N. J.

Melbourne, Ia.—"I am thankful for the great good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done me. I suffered many years from chronic inflammation and bearing down pains and was unable to do my work."

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restored me to health after all other means had failed, and to-day I am a living advertisement for it."—Mrs. Clara Watermann, R. D. No. 1, Melbourne, Iowa.

There is absolutely no doubt about the ability of this grand old remedy, made from the roots and herbs of our fields, to cure female diseases. We possess volumes of proof of this fact, enough to convince the most skeptical.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has thousands to health free of charge. Address Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.

ABLE SERMON BY MR. SIBLEY

Preached on "God's Vision" at the Presbyterian Church Sunday.

At the First Presbyterian church Sunday Rev. Julian S. Sibley, the pastor, delivered a very able sermon, preaching on "God's Vision." He said: "The question is, 'What is God's vision?' which man is unable to fully answer. 'Canst thou by searching find out God, canst thou find out the Almighty unto perfection?' No. His immensity or whither shall I flee from Thy presence under consideration, Proverbs 15:3, the immensity of God is set before us in a most impressive manner, for it tells us 'The eyes of the Lord are in every place, beholding the evil and the good.' Do these words not startle you? If not, thy conscience is seared by spiritual indifference for they remind you that God is everywhere and knows everything. In spite of this solemn truth we can but say if there is one thing concerning which man is apparently indifferent, it is the omnipresence and omniscience of God. In the first place I remind you that God's immensity is seen in His omnipresence."

The text tells us, "The eyes of the Lord are in every place." This means that God is everywhere, that God's vision is absolutely universal.

In Psalm 139:7-12 the Psalmist says, "Whither shall I go from Thy Spirit? or whither shall I flee from Thy presence? If I ascend up into heaven thou art there; if I make my bed in hell, behold, thou art there. If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea; even there shall thy hand lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me. If I say, surely the darkness shall cover me, even the night shall be light about me. Yea, the darkness hideth not from Thee; but the night shineth as the day; the darkness and the light are both alike to Thee."

O that men realized this solemn truth! How different this world would be if they did. God everywhere! As this is true, it is the height of folly to think of concealment from His vision. "Awake or asleep, at home or abroad, in sickness or in health, by land or sea, we are still with God." Hear the text again and try to grasp the depths of its meaning. "The eyes of the Lord are in every place." This also means that nothing is concealed from God. No act, no deed, no work, no word, no thought. All things are inspected, nothing is overlooked.

This is a great warning against deception in life in all of its relations. God is with us in our business dealings. He is with us in our social relations. He is with us in our homes. What does he see in your life, day by day? He is infinitely just. What will you receive at His hands? The text also means that God's presence is constantly everywhere. My hearers, such a truth as this ought to make us careful as to what we do, or say, or think. We are writing a page in life's record day by day and God sees it and records it. What are we writing? What are we writing? God's word tells us, "So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God." Romans 14:12.

The immensity of God is also seen in His omniscience. The text says, "The eyes of the Lord are in every place, beholding the evil and the good."

How infinite is God's knowledge! This teaches that "we have to do with an ever watchful, keenly observing God." His eyes are always upon us. He sees all that we do as well as hears all that we say and knows all that we think. God "never slumbers, never sleeps." At every stage of life God's eye is upon us. He knows when children are disobedient and disrespectful. He knows when men and women are honest in their dealings with each other. He knows whether the husband and wife are faithful and true to each other. He knows whether fathers and mothers are ordering their homes aright, for he sees it all. He knows it all. So thorough and searching is God's vision that it penetrates to the innermost soul, searching its most secret places, "discerning the thoughts and intents of the heart." Nothing can be concealed from God. Hear Him as He speaks, "Can any hide any thing from me? shall I not see him? saith the Lord. Do not I fill heaven and earth? saith the Lord." Jeremiah 23:24.

Listen to what the Psalmist says in Psalm 139:16, "O Lord, thou hast searched me and known me. Thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising, thou understandest my thought afar off. Thou compassedst my path and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my ways. For there is not a word in my tongue, but lo, O Lord, thou knowest it altogether; thou hast beset me behind and before, and laid Thine hand upon me. Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is high, I cannot attain unto it."

Thus we see that God's knowledge of our actions, our words, our whole lives. Yet in spite of this many rush madly on in a life of sin to their eternal doom.

"The Lord looketh from heaven; He beareth the sons of men." Psalm 33:13.

The text tells us, "The eyes of the Lord are in every place, beholding the evil." Evil men, evil acts, no evil escapes His all seeing eye. He beholds secret sins, for we read in Psalm 90:8, "Thou hast set our iniquities before thee, our secret sins in the light of thy countenance." There are no secrets hidden from God. All of man's sins are "in the light of God's countenance." They are still there even after we have forgotten them. "For the ways of man are before the eyes of the Lord and He poudereth all his goings." Prov. 5:21.

God sees the good. "The eyes of the Lord are in every place, beholding the evil and the good." This should be a great source of comfort to the saints; that they can never get

The Stomach of the Child

Is the Organ All Parents Should Protect and Keep Normal.

The stomach of a child is the organ above all others upon which the future of a child depends. Bodily development is fast in children, and the nourishment necessary to meet such development is the one essential demanded from a parent. Most mothers and fathers jealously guard a child from the formation of bad habits, yet in this age our children early become the victims of wrong food, over eating and irregular meals.

It is most appalling to know the effect of stomach troubles among our children.

Most children who are nervous, irritable and cross, who dream, sleep restlessly, who tire easily and have no desire for child exercise, generally have stomach trouble, indigestion and dyspepsia.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are intended to thoroughly digest food and to place the system in shape to obtain all the nourishment it needs from such food.

These tablets mix with the juices of the system, enriching them and giving to the body the ingredients necessary to build up the rapidly forming brain and body of the young. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets should be given to children after each meal and at bed time. They are made from pure vegetable and fruit essences and contain no harmful chemicals whatever. The use of these tablets will give greater vim to a child in its school work or at its play. They will produce appetite and soothe the nerves, destroy abnormal cravings and will allay the bad effects of sweets and such improper foods as most children enjoy and will eat no matter what is done to prevent it.

It is due the child that his stomach be protected by the parent, and if Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are given after meals, the habits of the child will not tear down the stomach and destroy the digestive juices nearly so rapidly. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are given to each and every degree of life. Any condition of the stomach welcomes them, from the strongest to the weakest. For sale by all druggists price 50 cents. Send us your name and address today and we will mail you at once a trial package free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

beyond God's watchful care. He knows their services, however insignificant they may be. None are forgotten or overlooked. The Master says, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me." Mt. 25:40.

He knows their sorrows. He knows their needs. This inspires God's child to say,

"I know not where His islands lift Their fringed palms in air; I only know I cannot err."

Beyond His love and care. "But my God shall supply all you need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus." Phil. 4:19. There are only two great classes of men, "the evil and the good," consequently this text must have an effect upon each of them. If the "evil" man sides with it, and why should he not, it must fill him with fear. There is no escaping God's glance. After Adam sinned he hid himself but God said to him, "Where art thou?" When God spake to Cain, after he had slain Abel, and said, "Where is Abel, thy brother?" and he said, "I know not; Am I my brother's keeper?" and He said, "What hast thou done?" The voice of the brother's blood crieth unto me from the ground." Genesis 4:9-10. When Balaam saw that he was discovered he said unto the Lord, "I have sinned." Num. 22:34. O sinner, God knows your life. Repent and say to Him, "I have sinned. God be merciful to me, a sinner." Let the good rejoice, for God is ever with them.

In Jeremiah 32:19, and Revelations 22:11-15, we read, "Great is the counsel, and mighty in work, for Thine eyes are open upon all the ways of the sons of men, to give every one according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings." "And I saw a great white throne, and Him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them, and I saw the dead, small and great, standing before God; and the books were opened; and another book was opened, which is the book of life; and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works, and the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them; and they were judged every man according to their works, and death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death. And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire." "The eyes of the Lord are in every place, beholding the evil and the good." Prov. 15:3. There is no escaping His vision.

"For God our Maker, ever nigh, Surveys us with a watchful eye; Our every thought and act He knows, From early dawn to daylight's close."

FINE MUSIC FURNISHED BY ALL THE BANDS

More Bands and Better Music Than at Previous Carnivals.

WAS ESPECIALLY GOOD IN THE MYSTIC PARADE LAST NIGHT, AND ADDED MUCH TO THE SPLENDOR OF THE PARADE.

More and better bands and consequently better music and more music characterized the year's Mardi Gras carnival, and added much to the pleasure of the occasion, for there is nothing which adds to an occasion so much as plenty of music. In every event given during the past two days there has been plenty of music of the right kind, and the Carnival Association can be complimented for securing it.

The fine music was especially noticeable last night, and it seemed as though each of the bands was endeavoring to outdo the other.

The Auburn College band, which had the position of honor is a fine musical organization and received many compliments during the visit to Pensacola. There is hardly a finer band in the south than the Eighth Artillery band stationed at Fort Barrancas. For years it has been a splendid organization, but recently has improved wonderfully, and its appearance on the streets both Monday and last night elicited much applause.

Wyer's band played in its usual good form at all parades, and Shellback's band also rendered good music.

The Manhattan band appeared only on Monday night, but it did well considering the number of members.

WOMAN NOT SUBJECTED TO THIRD DEGREE

CHIEF OF NEWARK POLICE CLAIMS THAT MRS. MARY J. WILHELM REQUESTED TO BE TAKEN TO MORGUE TO SEE BODY OF HER HUSBAND.

By Associated Press. Newark, N. J., Feb. 23.—Chief of Police Michael Corbett denies the accuracy of the report published on February 4 stating that Mrs. Mary J. Wilhelm had been subjected by the police to what is known as the "third degree." An investigation shows that the so-called "third degree" was not made. Chief Corbett's statement of the occurrence is as follows: "Mrs. Wilhelm on the day preceding the funeral of her husband, pleaded to be permitted to view the body. She agreed to hire a coach to convey her to the undertaker's if her request was granted. The request was granted and it was arranged with her that the journey be made at 9 o'clock that night, so she would not be subjected to the gaze of a morbid crowd or the fire of many cameras. Her relatives had been informed of the intended trip and they brought her mourning garments to wear. She prepared for the journey early in the night and was fully dressed and waiting to make the trip when the coach arrived exactly at the hour that had been set. She had not retired and consequently was not aroused from her sleep and hustled out at midnight without being told whether she was going."
